WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1625 Doughton St., Nicetown, Pa.

Another Woman's Case.

Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and will not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABEL LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammatory, ulcerative condition, which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

FEAR ROOSEVELT COUP

Republican Presidential Aspirants Anxious Over Convention.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Friends of candidates for the Republican nomination are becoming alarmed over information that reaches them from various parts of the country that a definite and apparently concerted movement is on to make Colonel Theodore Roosevelt a factor in the party's National Convention next year. There is nothing thus far to show that the Colonel has entered the list with the object of capturing the nomination.

The understanding is that it is intended to place his name before the convention with a backing of delegates formidable enough to give him a say in the ultimate selection of the standard bearer, but without the intention of nominating Colonel Roosevelt himself.

In spite of this understanding, men here who are actively interested in the candidacies of Republicans with Presidential ambitions are apprehensive that the Colonel will enter the convention with the object of capturing the prize if the opportunity offers. They are of the opinion that in any event his position will be somewhat similar to that he assumed in 1908, when those who opposed the candidacy of William H. Taft for the Republican nomination were confronted by the slogan attributed to the Colonel, "If you don't take Taft you've got to take me."

The worry of the friends of candidates has been increased by trustworthy information that Senator Jones of Washington, Republican, has written a letter in which he indicates that Colonel Roosevelt will enter the Presidential primaries in that Pacific Coast State and that he is bound to win overwhelmingly. According to the advice that have reached Washington the plan of the Roosevelt boomers is to begin their fight in the Republican primaries of Minnesota, Indiana, and New Hampshire, which will be held early.

If they succeed in capturing delegates in all or any of these States it will be realized that Colonel Roosevelt must be consulted by the leaders of the National Convention in making their choice of a candidate for President; that is, if there are a considerable number of candidates for the nomination with no one of them having anything approaching a majority of the total number of delegates.
